To Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and is on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrill's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

LAST CHANCE.—A good chance, and probably the last one to purchase that healthful and delicious tropical fruit known as pine-apples, is now offered at Samson & Co's. Prices are much cheaper than heretofore, also, and they go with a rush.

THE EVENING SERENADERS.—The Brigade Band came into possession of one of Messrs. Wm. & E. D. Fuller's best lively conveyances free gratis, Thursday evening, and went on a musical excursion to Parsonsville and elsewhere about town. On Main Street they paid their tuneful compliments to our townsmen, Messrs. D. R. Potter, B. F. Rugg, D. K. Mitchell and Cyrus Green. Later in the evening the serenaders called on Hon. W. C. Smith, M. C., at his residence, who welcomed them in a handsome speech from his veranda and invited them to partake of the hospitalities of the house. Bountiful tables awaited them with the luxuries of the season, and the party went away with further evidence of the friendship of the man at the head of Bank Street, and pleasant recollections of their reception.

Is the graduating class at Andover Theological Seminary were five Vermonters, whose names and the subjects of their essay we give:

The Kingdom of God. C. L. Hubbard, Corinth, Vt.

The doctrine of the New Testament concerning an Intermediate State.—Ezra Brainerd, St. Albans, Vt.

The Theology for the pulpit. D. Dana Marsh, Thetford, Vt.

The Influence of Individual Christian Experience upon Doctrinal Belief. A. W. Hazen, Norwich, Vt.

PLAYED OUT.—The street sprinkler has become useless for the purpose for which it was introduced into town, and will weep over the condition of our streets no more forever. Henceforth we are to rely upon the drizzling rain and falling dew, without any artificial appliances. The contrivance has become the property of the Welden House, and has been converted into a supply tank. Peace to its waters, "Twas ever thus," &c.

RATHER HIGH.—A hill of corn in Windsor twenty-five feet high.

THE Episcopal Church at Woodstock, is to have a new organ, which is being built by Wm. Jackson, & Co., of Albany.

We notice that our old friend Norman Williams, Esq., of Chicago, a son of the late Hon. Norman Williams, of Woodstock, heads the list of the Illinois Republican State Central Committee at large. He is also a member of the Executive Committee.

AGED.—There recently, says the Belknap Falls Times visited at the house of C. D. Willard, in Westminster, at one time, six ladies whose united ages amounted to 486 years, being an average of 81 years. The oldest was 86, the youngest 73. Three of them are natives of Westminster, and we believe all live in one neighborhood—a fact at least which speaks something for the longevity of the town.

THE Brattleboro Record says that it is expected that the sculptor, Mr. Meade, Jr., the sculptor, will be present at the dedication of the soldier's monument, modeled by him, at St. Johnsbury on the 20th of this month.

VT. VALLEY RAILROAD.—The annual meeting of the Vermont Valley Railroad Company was held at Belknap Falls on Wednesday, and the following persons chosen directors for the year ensuing: Hugh H. Henry, Governor Morris, Alex. Hamilton, G. R. L. Bowdoin, Charles Chapin, Joel Page, J. H. Williams, President, Hugh H. Henry.

OBITUARY.—Rev. J. W. Bramblee, pastor of the Methodist Church at Belknap Falls, died on Monday morning, the 10th. Mr. B. was a graduate of Middlebury College, Ct., and by his directions his funeral was held at that place on the 12th, with Masonic honors. A sermon was preached by the President of the College.

Geo. B. Wiley, of Galva, Ill., formerly of Saxton's River, died recently. He was an exemplary, honorable and public spirited citizen, and the citizens of Galva deeply mourn his death.

PHOENIX INSURANCE COMPANY.—The Rutland County Journal says: That old and valuable Corporation, the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, has again made a victim of its heart, and by paying Mrs. Martin of East Whitehall a very liberal sum on the proceeds her due from an insurance on her husband's life, effected by our friend C. L. Babcock, of Rutland. The writer of this article, (J. H. Lunsley), has an insurance on his life in this reliable company and considers it equal to a good farm in the event of his death.

Renomination of Mr. Smith.

We announced Wednesday night the renomination of Hon. W. C. Smith for Congress, by the District Convention at Stowe. As we expected, the nomination was unanimous, and by acclamation. Mr. Smith has proved a capable and faithful Representative, and has left no reason for any other feeling on the part of his constituents than that of entire confidence in his ability and integrity. We have the testimony of his colleagues, also, to show that his labors in Congress are appreciated as highly among them as they are at home. His election is one of the political certainties, which afford encouragement to Republican principles.

MR. ATKINS' SPEECH.—Some of the Democrats who were present at the Fairfield Convention the other day are not at all pleased with Mr. Atkins' speech, especially his savage attack upon Mr. Barlow. The Democrats of course do not like Mr. Barlow, and want him defeated, but they are fearful that such speeches will gain him Republican votes. It seems to us that Mr. Atkins stepped a little out of his way to abuse Mr. Barlow, but this is a mere matter of taste. Mr. Barlow, ought not certainly to complain. People do not generally throw clubs into trees where there is no good fruit.

METEMPSYCHOSIS.—We will explain the word may be found in the dictionary. It was used by the ancients to denote a change by which, when a person died, his spirit entered into another body, and continued to live, veiled in another form. The doctrine thus named, and once taught by a certain sect of philosophers is true. We can vouch for that. Ethel Allen believed it. We can even prove it. The Soule which once animated the office of Republican Sheriff in this county has passed into an intermediate state of voiceless political existence, from which it is emerging into Democratic form again. Those old Greeks were not fools, after all. They knew what they knew. The word above used may be defined, transmigration of soul(s).

WE understand that the communicated article, in favor of the bolting candidate for Sheriff, which appears in the Messenger of this evening was written by L. E. Pelton, Esq., of Highgate, Verbum sat.

JUDGE DEAVITT'S resolutions adopted at the Fairfield Convention and with the same sentiment adopted in other words by the Democratic Convention of 1864. The Democracy wanted "peace" then at the expense of surrender. The difference now is, the resolutions call for "peace," while the candidate Blair declares for war. Perhaps the peace should be spelled thus—piece!

WILL HE REST?—A correspondent asks if we do not think Mr. Soule will withdraw before election. In answer we would say that we do not know what he will do, but we know what he ought to do. He ought to run in at once, and heartily support the nominees of the Republican party—a party which has twice elected him to a lucrative office.

WE suppose that no man who knows Mr. Barlow, and the efficiency with which he served the cause of the Union during the rebellion, with time and money, has since doubted that he is as earnest a Republican as can be found in our country. If there is such a one, his doubts would have been set at rest could he have listened to Mr. Atkins' abuse of Mr. Barlow at the Fairfield Convention. Atkins don't waste his powder upon those who have any sympathies for the "peace Democracy."

IS IT SO?—We are told that some Republicans who urged Mr. Place to allow his name to be used at the Sheldon Convention are, now that he is nominated, doing all in their power to defeat him. Such political perfidy cannot be too severely condemned.

TO BEAUTIFY AND DRESS THE HAIR, AND RESTORE it to its natural gloss, odor, etc., use Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S IMPROVED (new style) HAIR RESTORER OR DRESSING, (in one bottle.) Every Druggist sells it. Price One Dollar.
